The Jury Law.

An agitation bas been commenced in the Western part of Upper Canada to amend the above law, in so for as relates to the selecting of jurors; and we must confers, not without reason. Modern Toleration.

To the Editor of the New Era DEAR Sig-There has been a curious old forsit recently exhumed in the North West part of the Township of King, which has caused quite a stir among the simple minded folks of that portion of our fair province. It being such a pure relie of the good old past, I feel disposed to give your patient readers a brief description of it. It is a specimen of the first water, of old fashioned bigotry, belonging to the subkingdom Sectarianism, ador Quakerism, go. nus Hicksite family.

I will give you a brief narrative of the discovery. An old and well tried friend of the vicinity of Lloydrown ; his friends chose for his | Denmark. last resting place the Quaker build ground in Brownsville. town Division to the leading members of the leston. Society of Friends, informing them of their in tention to take charge of the funeral, &c. On the morning of the burial a deputation (?) from the Quakers met the Sons when just about to start, and requested them to ley aside their crape badges and to follow in the wake of the hearse in a private capacity. Backed by the relatives of deceased, the Sons refused to comply with this unresconable request. It was then mutually arranged that the Sons were to have charge of the foneral till they reached the burial ground, when they were to dispense with 'that offensive bit of crape,' and minute with the multitude. In due time the procession arrived at Brownsville Temperance Hall, where the sermon was preached by Rev. Mr Hayward. Service over, the Marshals were arranging the procession for marching to the place of sepulture, (which is over a half a mile from the hall) when aforesaid deputation re-appeared, informing the Marchal: in a mos burial ground in the came manner as they had come from Lloydrown, they would close the gates against them." In order to prevent any unreemly disturbance at this juncture of affairs, the Sons laid aside their badges and many of them returned to their homes. This took place on the 2nd Jan Religious Liberty owes much to the Friends. For more than two centuries they have fought and soffered for their religious principles, and | ed. the doctrines of their ancestors. I cannot but think that, although the above breach of common politeness was perpetrated in the name of viduals. For, sorely a Society distinguished for its Christian Charity would not stoop to such meanness and intolerance. But if we are to understand that this deputation was colf-constiluted, then the whole matter is plain, for it is well known that the stolid dollness of both the gentlemen who composed it will account We hope the Society will clear itself of

Dr. Hunter moved the resolution of which he gave notice on Saturday, instructing the treasurer to furnish a statement of the amount of taxes due on non-resident lands in the Villages of Newmarket and Holland Landing. His reason for moving the resolution was owing to the fast that last year the amount of taxes returned as being from Newmarket was $1.127, while this year the return showed that about 8350 only were due. There had evidently been some error in the first return. and this resolution was designed to rectify it.
